

The CORE CLASS is required for all priesthood, children and youth workers. This is regardless of whether you have children and youth in your congregation. This requirement is for those who need to become registered. This class will review the important aspects for any person working with children and youth. It includes updated information and guidelines that have been implemented over the past few years with from World Church, AZMC and Children Protection Ministry.

The MAKING RESPONSIBLE CHOICES Class (Previously listed as the BOUNDARIES CLASS) is required in AZMC for all those who work directly with children and youth in congregations and the mission center. (ie. nursery, church school, youth camps, lead or assist with children and youth at reunion). It includes ways to observe important boundaries with children and youth.

The REFRESHER COURSE is for those who have previously completed the Core and Boundaries. It serves as an important update. This class will review the important aspects for any person working with children and youth. It includes updated information and guidelines that have been implemented over the past few years with from World Church, AZMC and Children Protection Ministry.
